No. 181 April 2023

Dear Friends

I read recently Eleanor Parker's book, Winters in the World, a journey through the Anglo-Saxon year. Highly recommended. In that period between Roman rule in Britain, and the emergence of the medieval period. It is fascinating how much history and theology and Christian tradition is embedded in our tradition from those far-distant times. Including the attention paid to the changing of the seasons:

*Winter is coldest,
Spring frostiest – it is longest cold;
Summer sun-brightest –
the sun is hottest;
Harvest most glory-
blessed; it brings to men
The year's fruits, which God sends them.*

Well into the twentieth century, festivals like Candlemas and Whitsun, Michaelmas, Lent and Lammas were celebrated in different parts of the country as the seasons moved round.

Today many have lost touch with the agricultural and liturgical calendars, though our year is still shaped by the rhythms of the seasons.

After the long, sombre season of Lent, with its Ash Wednesday, and its purple hues, we arrive at the pinnacle of the Christian Year, moving from Palm Sunday through Holy Week to Maundy Thursday and its Last Supper, Good Friday and the crucifixion, Holy Saturday the day of quiet, and the bursting joy that is Easter.

I have always felt it important to take the time to work through Holy Week, from the swirling, shout that is Palm Sunday, and on through the nights that gradually darken until we find ourselves in the Upper Room, foot washing and bread and wine, in the Garden of Gethsemane, at the foot of the cross looking at a dead Saviour, outside the stone-blocked tomb on the dark day. And then, and only then, another garden, a new morning, an empty tomb and the wonders, doubts and assurances of Easter and resurrection. Jumping from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday misses out too much.

Staying in the death and gloom of the rock tomb misses the point of Jesus' love. So also a faith only full of alleluias and sunshine without lamentation and dark is unrealistic.

Make the most of this coming season. See the earth renewing around you in nature, hear the brightness of Easter hymns at Church, enjoy the good food and drink prepared as a reminder of God's endless provision but, at the heart of this coming Easter, remember the love, the unswerving, unrelenting, undying love that Jesus has for you. You are that special to Him. Out of any darkness you may have in life at this time, now is the time to emerge into the light, and rejoice.

Very Revd Dr Derek Browning

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER: 3 – 9 APRIL 2023

The joint Holy Week services with Greenbank Parish Church will be held, this year, in Morningside Parish Church. We will be following the story of Jesus' last days in the Gospel of John.

Services will be held at 7.30pm. Monday to Wednesday when the congregation will be seated in the chancel. On Thursday to Saturday the congregation will be seated in the nave.

On Maundy Thursday there will be Communion as part of the service.

On Good Friday there will be choral input from the choirs of Morningside and Greenbank who will sing an introit and anthem during the service.

On Holy Saturday there will be a service of readings and music in a time of quiet reflection and anticipation.

Easter Sunday is 9 April.

On Easter day there is no 9.30am service in the Cluny Hall. We traditionally have one congregational service at 10.30am in the Church, where the theme will be 'An Everlasting Love'. Children and young people meet in Church as usual before going through to the Braid Hall.

Easter refreshments will be served in the St Matthew's Hall after the service – all welcome!

REMEMBERING SERVICE SUNDAY 16 APRIL 2023

On Sunday 16 April at 3pm in the Church we will hold our annual Remembering Service.

Our Remembering Service is open to everyone in the Church and in the wider community who would like to come and sit quietly at this simple, reflective service, which will last for around half an hour. During the service there will be an opportunity to write names on stars and attach them to our Remembering tree which will be placed beside the communion table.

Please let friends, neighbours and family know that the service is taking place and invite them to attend if they would like.

We will serve tea and coffee after the service.

Three prizes were awarded on the night:

Best team name: Average Age 81.4

Wooden Spoon: Morningside Ladies

Very many thanks must also go to all those involved in the arrangements, the setting up and the serving of refreshments and particularly Fiona Gossip and David Calder who set and asked the questions.

ANOTHER CHOIR SCHOLAR INTRODUCES HIMSELF: Tenor Terence O'Neill

I began singing in this Church in October because I missed the enrichment I got from singing in a church and the challenge that the repertoire brings with it, as I used to be a treble chorister at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Outside of the church I enjoy playing trumpet and organ which I have a scholarship for at school, George Watson's College. I'm enjoying the experience that singing with such a talented group of musicians brings and I look forward to Easter as we have a lot of good repertoire in preparation.

We hope to have introductions from other choir scholars in the next magazine.

MUSIC AND MEMORIES

Some of you may remember that last September, Music and Memories were visited by a film crew from the University of the West of Scotland. They recorded some footage of our group as part of a wider piece of work involving the Forget me Notes, the two men who lead our workshops.

A few weeks ago we had the chance to view the finished product and it is a very impressive short film. Our group comes across really well and the film captures well the sense of community, fun and laughter that typifies our sessions.

The hope is that over the next few months we will be able to offer a chance to the wider church to see this film for themselves.

A prayer for Easter Evening: Jesus Christ, You meet us

Jesus Christ, You meet us;
Your hands still holed,
But Your breath warm,
And Your conversation engaging.
Death has not changed Your accent
Or diminished Your love.
And though the world
Should still show signs of its imperfection,
The good news is that You have destined it
And all its peoples to be made whole.
So, as on this Easter evening
We are gathered in Your house
And cheered by Your Gospel,
Join us,
As You joined Your first disciples
And make our worship Your Emmaus Road.
Amen

*Be silent.
Be still.
Wait before your God.
Say nothing.
Ask nothing.
Be still.
Let your God look upon you.
That is all.
God knows.
God understands.
God loves you with an enormous love.
God only wants to look upon you with love.
Quiet.
Still.
Be.
Let your God love you.*
